

Fiducian Property Securities Fund

FIDUCIAN
INTEGRITY • TRUST • EXPERTISE

Monthly Report - December 2025

Fund description

The Fund invests in a diversified group of specialist listed property managers. The Fund utilises the Fiducian “Manage the Manager” process, carefully selecting best of breed managers with different sector exposures with the aim of achieving superior returns with reduced risk.

Typically, property securities provide attractive levels of income plus a small amount of capital growth. Returns from property trusts are generally lower than shares, but typically exhibit lower variance in price during market declines.

The recommended holding period for this fund is at least 6 years.

Market Commentary and Outlook

The global economy is forecast to expand this year and the next, according to the latest estimates provided by the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Global growth is forecast to have been 3.2% in 2025 and to be 3.1% in 2026 (both above the IMF's previous forecasts). As the IMF previously noted, this forecast of marginally lower growth is due to what it has termed 'the swift escalation of trade tensions and extremely high levels of policy uncertainty' following the announcement by the US in April of 'sizeable tariffs against most of its trading partners'. However, as the IMF now puts it, 'the good news is that the negative impact on the global economy (of US tariffs) is at the modest end of the range'. Growth in the advanced economies is forecast to be 1.6% in 2026, matching the forecast for 2025, but with 'risks tilted to the downside' in 2026.

The broad US stock market (S&P 500 Accumulation Index) has been on an uptrend since early April, gaining 0.1% in December. The Australian market (ASX 200 Accumulation Index) gained 1.3% over the month. The Australian dollar gained 1.9% relative to the US dollar over the month. Commodity prices were mixed with copper, gold, and iron ore posting gains, while coal and oil declined.

Key global share markets have been 'pricing-in' a shift by central banks towards less restrictive monetary policy, despite signs of inflation rising again in some economies. However, share markets are likely to remain volatile until a resolution of trade tensions is achieved.

Fund Commentary

The Fiducian Property Securities Fund gained by 1.4% in December, which underperformed the index return of 2.0%. For the 12 months to the end of December, the Fund returned 9.2%.

The listed property sector gained 2.0% in December, outperforming the broader market (ASX 200 Accumulation Index), which rose by +1.3%.

Over the coming year, conditions in the Industrial property sector are expected to remain strong, while operating conditions for Retail landlords could continue to improve. The outlook for Residential Developers appears more balanced, while the outlook for Office valuations remains uncertain due to ongoing high vacancy rates except for high-end Office space. Last year's reduction in interest rates has assisted the sector, while listed property trust share prices continue to be attractive given ongoing discounts to net asset valuations in many cases.

Overall, the underlying sector exposures of the Fund are an overweight in the 'Others' category and an underweight to the Retail sector, with other sectors broadly in line with the index. The 'Others' category includes asset classes such as self storage facilities, data centers and residential development companies. This broad category has exhibited strong growth in recent years.
