

Fiducian posts FY2025 results with 23% lift to NPAT

Sydney: Monday 18th August 2025

In a year characterised by geopolitical uncertainty and US tariff threats, Fiducian Group Ltd (ASX: FID) has delivered a FY25 net profit after tax of $18.6 mil which is a 23% increase on the prior year. Funds under management, advice and administration, (FUMAA) has risen 10% to $14.8 billion. Consequently, fully franked dividends declared for the year have risen 19% to 46.6 cents per share. Compared with FY24, Fiducian's net revenue increased by 13%, and Underlying Net Profit After Tax (UNPAT), our cash generation capability, grew by 19%. This was reflected in the underlying earnings per share increasing 19% from 56.3 cents in 2024 to 66.9 cents in the current financial year.

Net inflows of $343 million were received in the Fiducian platform during the year from our aligned dealer group. Fiducian continues to provide a high level of support to our 'family' of financial advisers to help them lift their revenue, attract more clients, and build their businesses. Our focus will remain on generating inflows through organic and inorganic growth, while further acquisitions of client bases continue to be negotiated.

Fiducian labelled platforms for Fiducian financial advisers are now complemented by our badged platforms and Auxilium offering for the external independent financial adviser (IFA) market. With a proven capability, our platform administration system meets the different requirements of the external IFA market. Auxilium platforms for superannuation and non-superannuation IFA business are successfully competing against established players.

At Fiducian we have always acknowledged staff as our most important and valuable asset, and we continue to nurture and help them grow personally, professionally and into positions of responsibility. Our strategy to view our people as a large Fiducian family standing alongside each other in difficult times, has held us in good stead as staff have reciprocated with a show of superior performance and loyalty when times are difficult.

Consistent with our strategy over the last 29 years, Mr Indy Singh, Executive Chairman for Fiducian Group Ltd said "Our focus remains on the establishment of a business with a solid foundation and growth strategy to enable upscaling on existing capacity and leveraging our controlled, relatively low fixed cost base. This strategy has benefited us with increasing revenues and growing profits.

The Board's objective remains to build scale and deliver consistent double-digit earnings growth over the long term and Management is determined to stay committed and focused to try and achieve this goal."
